

Singing Workshop Day—Thursday 19th July

Pupils in Year 7 and 8 along with the school singing group will be invited to take part in a workshop with visiting professional singers. The singers have been classically trained in both solo and choral work mainly at the Royal Northern College of Music. They will perform during assembly, pupils will then take part in a singing workshop during the school day. All pupils will then take part in a showcase performance the same evening from 5pm. Pupils will be asked if they wish to take part in the workshop. There is no prior experience needed and they promise to be fun and inclusive sessions.
